Clyde E. Jacobs (January 19th, 1924—June 23rd, 2009) completed his undergraduate degree at KU, and his MA and PhD at the University of Michigan. In 1952 he joined the Department of Political Science at UC Davis, where he taught for many years, and was especially dedicated to undergraduate education. He provided funds to assist French majors studying in France for the academic year. The Department is pleased to announce this year’s competition for the Clyde E. Jacobs Scholarship.

Eligibility:
Applicants must be French majors who have completed, or are completing, their sophomore year, and are preparing to spend their junior year abroad in France on an accredited program at a French university. Applicants should have completed FREN 240, or 234.

The Scholarship:
One non-renewable award of $7,000 dollars

Due date: March 11th, 2016 at noon.

Applications should be sent electronically to:
Professor Paul Scott, pascott@ku.edu

The dossier should include: a letter of motivation (two pages maximum), including an outline of the plan for study abroad, a transcript of all undergraduate coursework., CV, (four pages maximum) and two letters of recommendation (one of which should come from a French instructor). Queries about applying can also be addressed to Professor Scott.